

1. Define the following:
 - a. Democracy
 - b. Civil Servant
 - c. Pressure groups
 - d. Lobbyist
 - e. Bureaucrats
 - f. Spin doctors
 - g. Civil disobedience
 - h. Apartheid
2. Use the timeline to answer the following questions:
 - a. When was the Conservative Party founded by John A. Macdonald? _____
 - b. When was the Liberal Party founded by Alexander Mackenzie? _____
 - c. When was Canada's 1st Socialist Party the CCF founded by JS Woodsworth? _____
 - d. When did the CCF become the NDP? _____
 - e. When was the Green Party founded? _____
 - f. When did the Canadian Alliance merge with the Progressive Conservatives to create the Conservative Party of Canada? _____
3. Explain how the media is both a blessing and curse for politicians.
4. In what ways have traditional media (newspapers, TV...) been replaced or changed by new technologies (social media like Twitter)? In your opinion, will new technology help voter awareness and participation?
5. What are the three basic guidelines for practicing civil disobedience? Why are these guidelines an important part of this approach to changing government policies?
6. In your opinion, when should civil disobedience be used? Do you think governments have the right to limit civil disobedience? Explain your position.