

1. Define:
  - a. representative government
  - b. responsible government
  - c. oligarchy
  - d. Veto
2. What did the Constitution Act of 1791 accomplish?
3. Who had the right to vote in colonial elections for the Legislative Assembly?
4. Who held the actual power in the colonies?
5. What projects did the elected Legislative Assembly want the government to spend money on?
6. What projects did the governor & his appointed councils want to spend money on?
7. Name the two major grievances citizens had in Upper Canada.
8. Who was William Lyon Mackenzie? How did he try to reform the government?
9. Define:
  - a. Deficit
  - b. Nationalism
10. Name the three grievances French Canadians had in Lower Canada.
11. Who was Louis Joseph Papineau?
12. How did the English governor deal with the newspapers & people who criticized the government?
13. Copy the chart p. 66 the shows how colonial power was structured in Upper & Lower Canada for 1791.

Colonial Government – 1791

