

4 – 1

Canada in the 1920s – An Uneasy Adjustment

p. 60 – 66

1. Define the following:
 - a. Inflation
 - b. Branch plants
 - c. Primary industry
 - d. Secondary Industry

An Uneasy Adjustment: page 62

2. How did Communism affect Canada after WWI?
3. Why did union leaders in Western Canada create the OBU in 1919?

Canada's Changing Economy: pages 63-66

4. What parts of Canada's economy were booming by the mid-1920s?
5. What aspects of the Canadian economy would be dominated by US investors by the end of the 1920s?
6. What were the goals of the labour movement in the 1920s?
7. What was the "Red Scare"?
8. What did the federal government do to end the Winnipeg General Strike?
9. What was "Bloody Saturday"?
10. How were the strikers treated after the Winnipeg General Strike was broken?
11. What was "prohibition"? How did some Canadians take advantage of prohibition in the US?

