

Name: _____

Questions on 16th-17th c French Indigenous Relations

1. The ways that the French in North America were different than the English were that they emphasized _____, _____ instead of _____, but European contact still brought _____.

2 The European legal theory of Terra Nullius was _____.

CBC A Peoples History Episode 1:

3. After raising the cross to mark the terrain in the St Lawrence region for France, Cartier met Chief _____ who gave him food and assistance. Cartier then his sons and took them to _____. At the court of King Francois I, Andre Thevet said of them that _____.

4. Cartier's most significant discovery was _____.

5. Cartier's men who were ill were healed by _____. But Cartier attributed the miraculous cure to _____.

6. Cartier took _____, promising to return him home to Stadacona but he died in France.

7. Donnacona told Cartier about a place called _____, which Cartier wrote down as _____, and this is how Canada got its name.

Champlain

8. Champlain is known as the _____, founded _____.

Name: _____

9. Champlain wanted to make Quebec _____ but was opposed by the merchant companies who employed him because _____.

10. Two of Eastern North America's most powerful indigenous confederacies, _____ and _____ were in a war for control of the fur trade routes.

11. The _____ entered into an alliance with Champlain. The deal was that they got _____ and in return the French got _____ in their fight against the _____.

12. Champlain uses a gun called the _____ to kill 2 Iroquoian chiefs, which shocks the Iroquois and they retreat.

13. The writings of Champlain and the _____ which the Jesuits wrote back to France about their experiences in North America are the basis for the detailed knowledge of the events in this time period.

14. The Wendat traditionally lived in _____. They accepted _____ to forge closer trade relationships with the French.

15. Six Jesuits including Father _____ worked to build the Jesuit Mission _____ in Ontario, which was destroyed by the Iroquois in _____.

16. The Wendat population declined in the 1630s-1640s from about 30,000 to just a few thousand survivors because of _____.

- Homework - write 3-5 paragraphs answering the following question:

Explain why the French had better relations with Native Americans than the English did (20 marks)